

The Confucius Institute in Chicago

WORKSHOP

How to Become a Chinese Teacher in CPS

By Jane Lu

Chicago Public Schools (CPS) is currently seeking certified Chinese World Language Teachers. Full time teaching positions are available from grades K-12 at schools throughout the city of Chicago. If you are interested in teaching Chinese in CPS, the Confucius Institute in Chicago invites you to join us for the workshop. Ms. Jane Lu, Coordinator of Chinese World Language Program of CPS, will assist you in navigating the CPS employment and certification process.

Saturday, January 16, 2010

10:00 AM – 12:00 NOON

The Confucius Institute in Chicago
Walter Payton College Prep High School
1034 N. Wells Street, Room 106 – Chicago, IL 60610
TEL (773) 534-0021 / FAX (773) 534-0024

2 CPDUs for IL teachers

FREE

Chinese teacher candidates and prospective Chinese teachers are welcomed to participate!

Please send your RSVP to Michelle Rosales by Thursday, January 14, 2010.
(TEL: (773) 534-0021 / E-Mail mrosales13@cps.k12.il.us)

*The Confucius Institute in Chicago is a partnership between:
Chicago Public Schools Office of Language and Cultural Education,
The Office of Chinese Language Council International and East China Normal University, Shanghai*

www.confuciusinstitutechicago.org